

Hatem Mostafa

Vice President, Inkjet Business Solutions
Inkjet and Web Solutions Business
Hewlett-Packard Company

Hatem Mostafa is vice president of the Inkjet Business Solutions global business unit within the Inkjet and Web Solutions organization in the Imaging and Printing Group (IPG) at HP. He and his team are responsible for transforming the inkjet printing business to meet the printing needs of small- and midsize business customers.

Mostafa oversees the worldwide strategy, development and profitability of HP Officejet, Officejet Pro and All-in-One (AiO) devices. His business focuses on the expansion into both developed and emerging regions, vertical industries and digital web-based printing.

Prior to this role, Mostafa served as vice president and general manager of the Multifunction Systems and Infrastructure organization within IPG's Enterprise Imaging and Printing global business unit. Over the course of his 29-year career at HP, he has held a number of key management positions, including vice president and general manager for the Shared Printing Organization and general manager for the Mid-Range LaserJet Division.

Mostafa was general manager for the Department Color LaserJet Division that enabled HP's entry into the high-end color market. He also was research and development manager for the Office Products Division that launched the flatbed AiO category.

Based in San Diego, Mostafa holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota and a master's degree from Stanford University.
